Important Qualification Update

EAL is committed to a policy of continuous improvement, which can sometimes result in changes being made to our publications.

Whilst every effort is made to inform customers of any changes that are made it is important that centres, assessors and learners use only the latest issue of EAL publications to ensure that all the current requirements are fully met.

The table below lists the amendments and the current issue number/s for the qualification manual, learner book and assessment routes.

The latest amendment to any of the publications listed below is indicated by the symbol:
